STIC CONSULTANT COMPANY we understand that people learn in different ways that organizations require flexible training options for their staff. For every course we offer we have potential delivery options for everyone's learning style, timeframe location and budget.

Public courses

Using our highly skilled, experienced and qualified trainers gives our students a good learning experience and the best chance of success. Working with our partners globally we run our courses on set dates in many locations. Please contact us for more information on dates and locations of your chosen course(s).

Self-Study

For those who do not have the time to attend an instructor lead class or prefer learning at their own pace our self-study approach is an attractive option. In this way we provide a self-study packages with learning exercises and give you remote access to our expert instructors. The package also includes the examination which depend on the course can be taken at one of our set locations or even at your own working places making this a very convenient and flexible way to learn and achieve certification.

Online courses

Prefer self-study to have an instructor leading the course then our online offerings are the perfect solution for you. Lead by our qualified and experienced instructors your course will be delivered live over the web using our virtual classroom, all you need is a computer, internet connection, webcam and a microphone. We can deliver online courses over a set number of days in the same way as public courses all tailored to meet your needs. Private Onsite courses.

Private Onsite Courses

If your organization has four or more people want to take one of our courses, we can offer private onsite courses to your needs. In this model our instructor will deliver the course at your chosen location, and in most cases you can sit the exam at your venue too. This approach leads to time cost and travelling reduction and allows us to offer more attractive prices. We work globally and can deliver any of these courses worldwide.

To get acquainted with our courses please see our Course Brochure. If you are looking for a course that is not listed, please do not hesitate to ask as we are constantly updating and adding new courses to our portfolio. In addition Parker Solutions Group are experts in bespoke course development, if you need a course created just for you, we can help.
